WE STRONGLY RECOMMEND THAT YOU ONLY DRIVE TO AND FROM BUENAVENTURA DURING THE DAY LIGHT HOURS. THE ROAD CAN GET EXTREMELY FOGGY AT THE TOP OF THE TWO RIDGE LINES THAT YOU DRIVE UP AND OVER, AND VISIBILITY AT NIGHT CAN BE ALMOST NON-EXISTENT. SO PLAN ON DRIVING ONLY DURING DAY LIGHT HOURS.

The drive from San Isidro to Buenaventura takes approximately 1.5 hours (driving slow and carefully).

Driving Directions:

1. From San Isidro take the road out to Santa Rosa (and Pedregoso) ask any local and they'll point you to the road
2. Continue on the paved road to Santa Rosa
3. At some point the road will go from paved to dirt
4. There are a few forks in the road, so you have to make sure you take the right one, otherwise you'll get lost (seriously lost!)
5. The first fork is a sharp left (located in a little town just after the road turns to dirt) called San Calletano. Make sure to turn left and DO NOT go up the hill.
6. The second fork is up on the ridge and there is a sign that say "Savegre Abajo". Stay left and continue up the mountain
7. When you are descending from the ridge, you will see a sign and a road that goes left. Make sure you stay on the right side (DO NOT turn left towards San Marcos).
8. Once you descend to the base of the valley (River Division) and reach River Division, turn LEFT, and continue towards El Llano, which is a little town along River Division
9. Follow the road along the river and you will drive through the small town of El Llano (there will be a small pulperia on your left side, and a little further down the road, you'll see a large steel vehicle bridge on your right side). Once you pass El Llano, you will be about 3 miles (~4 km) from Buenaventura.
10. Continue on the road (don't go over the large bridge)
11. Follow the road up and over a mountain and you'll descend down again by the river
12. There is a small "quebrada" (creek) that you will have to drive through

13. Shortly after you drive through the creek the road will level off and continue straight
14. You will pass a two story BROWN AND GREEN house (Casita Milagro) with large black metal doors. Continue along the road and park your car in the parking lot of Posada de Suenos.
15. You've made it! Welcome to Buenaventura and Pueblo Nuevo Eco-Village!
